

Driver License for Young Drivers

If you are under 18 years of age and applying for a Nevada driver license or an instruction permit, a parent or guardian with proper court documentation must co-sign your application.

You will also need to sign an affidavit stating that you understand the limitations and penalties associated with the privilege of driving.

Effective July 1, 2001, a driver may not transport any passenger under the age of 18 unless that passenger is a member of his or her immediate family:

For the first 90 days the new driver holds their license if they are under age 16 when it is issued; or

For the first 60 days the new driver holds their license if they are age 16 to 17 when it is issued; or

For the first 30 days the new driver holds their license if they are age 17 to 18 when it is issued.

Instruction Permit

A Nevada instruction permit is valid for 1 year and you must carry the permit with you when you are driving. To obtain an instruction permit you must be at least 15-1/2 years old.

Driver License

When you apply for a driver license, you will have to present certification of completion of a 30 hour classroom course in driver's education and parental certification that you have completed 50 hours behind the wheel driver training. You may apply for a driver license at age 15-3/4 as long as you have met all requirements.

Effective July 1, 2001, in order to apply for a driver license you must have held an instruction permit for at least:
